Notes from our Director

Like all that came before it, the New Year 2021 comes with promise and hope for better times. This is put into sharp relief this year more than others, however, as we reflect on how deeply 2020 challenged us, and on the proportionate need for help and healing we have going into 2021. In the spirit of such reflection, I wanted to share a poem that was recently sent my way, as it speaks to a guiding principle as we move forward in community.

With best wishes and warm regards –

The Gates of Hope
By Victoria Stafford

Our mission is to plant ourselves at the gates of Hope—
Not the prudent gates of Optimism,
Which are somewhat narrower.
Not the stalwart, boring gates of Common Sense;
Nor the strident gates of Self-Righteousness,
Which creak on shrill and angry hinges
(People cannot hear us there; they cannot pass through)
Nor the cheerful, flimsy garden gate of “Everything is gonna’ be all right.”
But a different, sometimes lonely place,
The place of truth-telling,
About your own soul first of all and its condition.
The place of resistance and defiance,
The piece of ground from which you see the world
Both as it is and as it could be
As it will be;
The place from which you glimpse not only struggle,
But the joy of the struggle.
And we stand there, beckoning and calling,
Telling people what we are seeing
Asking people what they see.
